Reds Trap Shanghai Garrison

Violence Breaks Out in City While Stand Prepared

(From BUP and AP Dispatches)

SHANGHAI, April 29.—Outbreaks of violence were reported in Shanghai today. The Communist underground began distributing propaganda as Communist armies pushed near the city and closed a trap on the Metropolitan police.

Gen. Chen Ya Chiang, commander of Shanghai's 100,000-man garrison, said he was prepared for a Stalinist stand, on which the fate of all China depended.

"We now have completed months of construction work on the Shanghai defense perimeter," Chen said in an exclusive interview with the United Press at his headquarters.

"We have received reinforcements in large numbers. We know we can hold off the Communists for a considerable period of time."

Signal Corps troops outside the walls were busy stringing emergency wire circuits down the French road through the Hongkew district and tunneling out like a mole.

DEMAND WITHDRAWAL. In a Peking radio broadcast heard in San Francisco by the Associated Press, the Chinese Communists demanded that British, American, and French troops "quickly" withdraw their armed forces, warships and military aircraft from China.

At the same time, they promised to protect all foreign nationals in China who escape in normal "voluntary" and said they were willing to consider the establishment of diplomatic relations with foreign countries.

The statements were made by Gen. Li Tzu-hsiang, spokesman for the headquarters of the people's liberation army (Communist) of China.

MacKinnon Only Cabinet Minister Not Seeking Seat

OTTAWA, April 30.—(CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent said today that he would not seek re-election but one will contest the June 27 federal election. The exception is Hon. James MacKinnon, minister without portfolio in the St. Laurent cabinet and member of parliament from the Yukon.

OTHERS MENTIONED. Two others mentioned to go to the Red Chamber, Mr. MacKinnon, Walter S. Campbell and Mrs. C. Casperson, sometime MP for the Yukon.

J. W. Stambaugh, of Brace, has been named for political office for the second year and is expected to have a "hard" time in the Yukon.

Wives' Hopes Dashed In Asbestos Strike

ASBESTOS, Que., April 30.—(CP)—Announcement of a breakdown in new settlement talks in the 11-week-old asbestos industry dispute today has dashed whatever hope the strike-harassed wives of 5,000 local workers had entertained of soon packing lunch pails again.

The workers walked off the job 36 to 48 hours ago in a 15-cent-an-hour increase, raising the hourly pay to $1.15 a premium clause based on seniority, marital status and union status, the Rand formula and other benefits.

Their strike was declared illegal by the provincial government.

PROPOSAL FAILS. The latest settlement proposal fell through last night in the sixth meeting between representatives of the Canadian Johns-Manville Company and the strikers. Under the plan, announced by Labor Minister Barrett last Friday, the men would have returned to work as a chairman of a new arbitration board to study the points at issue.

Theodore Lagergren, Montreal lawyer chosen by the Catholic Federation of Asbestos Workers, said the talks had failed because it was impossible to satisfactorily clarify the question of possible reprisals by the company against the union and strikers.

He said he had accepted to act as arbiter on the belief that the terms of a return to work comprised true guarantees against reprisals by the company.

No statement was issued by the company representative, Ivan Roberts, A.C., also of Montreal.

Fire Brigade CRITICS GET CHANCE TO JOIN

DRUMHELLER, April 29.—(BUP)—The fire brigade in Drumheller is looking for more new members.

Chief Guterson says he has been having a hard time trying to find four new men.

Says Guterson, "We would gladly accept any four of the 300 or 600 critics who are either mouthy while the brigade is fighting a fire, or generous with their opinions the day after."

Building Up 100 Per Cent In 4 Months

Construction in Edmonton during the first four months of this year was 100 per cent greater than in the same period in 1948.

Permits issued up to last night totalled $8,811,785 compared with $4,609,647 for the period ended April 30, 1948, an increase of $4,202,138.

PREDICT HIGHER TOTAL. City Architect's department predicts a flood of permits in May that would boost the year's total close to $15,000,000.

It is known applications have been received for permits for 130 new apartment blocks estimated to cost $1,500,000.

Up to last night a total of 403 housing permits were issued valued at $2,523,752, compared to $1,864,000 at the same time last year.

COMMERCIAL. Commercial permits number 71, their value being $1,340,300, compared to 40 last year, valued at $1,340,300.

By April 30 last year, three permits had been issued for new apartment buildings. Value of these was $200,000. This year, three such permits have been issued valued at $2,023,000.

Permits for apartment blocks in the first four months last year totalled $770,000. Seven permits for apartment blocks issued so far this year total $1,800,000.

About $1,000,000 of the total this year comes from alterations, renovations and additions.

3 Eskimos Flown Out

WINNIPEG, April 30.—(CP)—An RCMP Dakota landed here shortly before midnight, ending a 1,000-mile journey by air for three Eskimo hunters who were stranded in Chesterfield Inlet, Eskimoes and an Indian Affairs Department plane.

An ambulance met the plane at the airport and took the three Eskimos, two of whom were suffering from pneumonia, to the hospital. One of the Eskimos, a small boy, was taken from the plane in a stretcher. The man, Miss Anna McCarthy, of St. Rose du Lac, Man., accompanied the patients to the hospital.

The Eskimos were evacuated earlier yesterday from Chesterfield Inlet, 400 miles north of Churchill, Man., on the west shore of Hudson Bay.

Halifax Papers Increase Prices

HALIFAX, April 30.—(CP)—The Halifax Herald Ltd., publishers of the Daily Chronicle-Herald and Star, today announced a 10 per cent price increase of one cent, effective May 1, to a promotional clause based on seniority, marital status and union status, the Rand formula and other benefits.

The company said the increases were a result of greater production costs. Subscription rates, however, would remain the same.

Alberta's Forests Menaced by Flames

Forest fires are blackening thousands of acres of Alberta's forest land, under-tying in one of the province's driest springs in history.

In other parts of Western Canada grass and brush fires are also taking thousands of dollars worth of timber and fodder.

Volunteer crews were saved by a 23-man fire-fighting crew in the Rocky Mountains House area. Extensive blazes which raged over an old timber tract northeast of Rocky Mountain House for two days was brought under control last night.

Volunteer crew used two bulldozers to keep the blaze from spreading to adjacent new timber stands. Today fire-fighters are engaged in clean-up operations and the fire is expected to be extinguished shortly.

Another major fire in the Lesser Slave Lake is approaching heavy timber stands, but is being kept under partial control by 30 men.

At Dryden Valley, west of W. Lashburn, 30 men using two bulldozers, are holding a fire back from valuable timber stands.

SETTLERS HIT. Nearly two fires have burned since the first of the month, but kept under control by 14 volunteers. At McMurtry, northern railway in Alberta, fire men are battling a bush fire. The town is not threatened.

One of the largest grass fires in Canada this year swept over 40,000 acres of the Blood Indian reservation near Lethbridge, Thursday night.

It was brought under control after burning for about 12 hours, during which it blackened an area ranging from 10 to 20 miles in length.

In Northern Saskatchewan a rash of new forest fires is spreading across the province north of Prince Albert.

Residents of Big River, 80 miles northwest of Prince Albert, fought a blaze which started in the lake from the village yesterday.

Four major fires are raging out of control in Manitoba, two near Winnipeg, one near Brandon and one near the Manitoba-People's Party timber limits northeast of Pine Falls.

Yellow Oleo Near Finish

Stocks of yellow margarine left in Alberta warehouses on Monday morning will go to the Yukon of the North West Territory, according to one prominent distributor here today.

Today is the last day the butter-colored margarine may be legally sold in Alberta and merchants and suppliers have been keeping a vigilant eye on stocks to avoid having a business tonight.

Make sure that stocks are taken away, merchants have been advertising margarine as low as 20 cents a pound, according to distributors is cost price.

Most of the stock of margarine will be exhausted by late today.

Parliamentary Kiss IS FIRST IN HISTORY

OTTAWA, April 30.—(CP)—Probably the only kiss ever recorded in Canadian parliamentary history was exchanged on the floor of the Commons last night.

On an obvious lark and before a heavily-packed chamber and thronged public galleries, George Cruickshank (L-Fraser Valley) strode down the floor with a bouquet of flowers, handed them to Mrs. Gladys Strum (C-Que'Appelle) and then bent over and soundly kissed her on the cheek.

The occasion was Mrs. Strum's departure for home on the eve of dissolution. She accepted the flowers, jumped up quickly and dashed out of the chamber, waving kisses to her fellow-members.

"I WAS LOADED," says Tommy Vandenburg, two and a half of St. John's, Calif., after Van Nuy's hospital attendants washed a deadly dose of poison from his tongue. Tommy had a swig from a pop bottle full of DDT fly spray which he found in the family garage.

Election Set for June 27 As Parliament Dissolves

OTTAWA, April 30.—(CP)—Canada's 20th parliament was dissolved today and the general election set for Monday, June 27.

The end of this parliament came a few minutes before 10 a.m. Edmonton time when Viscount Alexander, the governor-general, put his signature to proclamations dissolving the two houses, covering the issuance of writs for the general election and setting a formal date of Sept. 1 for the calling of a new parliament.

PASS SUPPLY BILL. Shortly before his announcement, the Commons finally passed the Supply Bill, providing for the government with $470,000,000 to cover expenditures until the end of September.

Members then swung their attention to bills providing for the incorporation of companies planning to construct oil and gas pipelines. The last of these was the last item of business on the agenda.

Progress was fast compared to the pleading debate on the bills which must be passed before the Commons and Senate rise.

STANDING IN HOUSE. This is the standing in the Commons as the government prepares to go to the country.

Liberals 125; Progressive Conservatives 69; CCF 22; Social Credit 12; others 12.

The standing in September, 1945, after all returns from the general election of 1945, was: Liberals 125; Progressive Conservatives 69; CCF 22; Social Credit 12; others 12.

The division bills yesterday brought members into the chamber to record an enthusiastic and unanimous vote of 155 to 10 in ratification of the Atlantic Pact, a day after the Senate had approved the defensive alliance.

In the other votes, the house backed up the government by 45 to 40 on a motion to go into committee on the post-union, period-over Progressive Conservative objection and registered a 140-to-31 rejection of a CCF motion calling on it to endorse the principle of national ownership of oil and gas pipelines.

NO FUNDS VOTED FOR RAISE. PAYLESS PAYDAY FACES President Truman Today

WASHINGTON, April 30.—(UP)—President Truman faced a payless payday today because Congress failed to appropriate money for his $12,500 April pay check.

Last January the lawmakers authorized Mr. Truman's salary to be $12,500 a year plus a tax-free $20,000 expense account. But so far they haven't bothered to vote funds to pay him the extra money.

Mr. Truman's April salary check normally would arrive at the White House no later than today, the last day of the month. However, the presidential pay check, which is paid by the U.S. Treasury, has not yet been issued. There was no word today whether it would be in Washington today.

"Armed Forces" pointed out, however, that Mr. Truman could be sure of at least one check a month after he retires from the White House. It said he will be entitled to a lifetime pension of $25,000 a month for his 30 years' service in a cabinet in the U.S. Army military reserve corps.

But as long as he is president, he is not eligible to receive his pension. Federal law prohibits government officials from drawing "double compensation" from the treasury.

Stronger virtue, more ardent belief and intense fidelity in the part of Catholic priests is urged by Pope Pius XII. His Holiness said that "the world" must be fought with faith and courage with purity.

He was one of Canada's most distinguished Orangemen, being past-grand master of both for Manitoba and British America.

Crime

Slot machines are illegal "again" in Alberta. The appeal court has reversed a judgment of the Alberta Court of Appeal, which had declared machines "legal" in the province.

The highest court has now ruled that there is no appeal against a magistrate's order for confiscation of such machines.

Air Life

Although Americans and Britons put out the biggest effort in the Berlin air lift, 10 other nations help in flying food, medicine and other necessities to the city. The United States, Canada, France, the Netherlands, Belgium and Switzerland.

Espionage

A Calgary friend of Dmitry Leshchenko, died in Winnipeg as a confessed Soviet spy, a convicted Leshchenko is innocent. The friend obtained two lawyers who will defend Leshchenko. The latter said he didn't care who defended him as long as the lawyers are anti-Communist.

The Arts

Parliament now has the plan for a national Canadian copyright. The equal of any in the world, but what happens from now on to authors' rights. The plan has been tabled in the Commons.

Screen star Ingrid Bergman has apparently planned a second European tour, and her Hollywood husband, Dr. Peter Lindstrom, is expected to be for discussion of Ingrid's romance with Italian film director Roberto Rossellini. Election Delays Highway Choice

Yellowhead Route Delegation Reports Some Interest Found

No final decision on the Trans-Canada highway route will be made until after the federal election.

This was the opinion of S. Bruce Smith, K.C., who has just returned from Ottawa after presenting a brief on merits of the Yellowhead route to the Dominion cabinet. The choice of the route is responsibility of the provinces.

Saskatchewan and B.C. favor the south route. Unless the two neighboring provinces can be persuaded after their views, Alberta will be forced to accept the southern route. After the election, however, political pressure is expected to be relieved on the Liberals, and lead of other parties tend to favor Yellowhead, he said.

The delegation improved on its responsible persons that Yellowhead is the most practical.

Besides Mr. Smith, the delegation consisted of D. B. Bromley of Kamloops, S. N. MacEachern of St. John's and R. V. MacEachern of Edmonton, representing boards of trade in those cities.

The brief was presented April 26 and later to Hon. George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader. Mr. J. Colwell, CCF leader and Mr. Low, leader of federal Social Credit Party.

Mr. Drew, reported Mr. Smith, favored fair and impartial consideration of proposed routes before any expenditure. Mr. Colwell said he "very interested" and his party would give consideration to the brief. Mr. Low said his party favored the Yellowhead route as the most practical and feasible.

It was a far cry from the cold, dry and miserable weather that RCMP officers detained 20 Canadians and former prime minister Lester B. Pearson in the city with the announcement that there had been detention in connection with illicit activities by a foreign power.

Mr. Linton gave himself up to Montreal three weeks ago. Others had all faced the city. Nine are now in prison for from six to two years for breaches of the official secrets act or for conspiracy to break it. Another was fined $500 for signing a passport he knew to be false. Nine were acquitted and vanished from the spotlight, some to find themselves out of work.

Seaborne Riot Sees Princess

CAPRI, Italy, April 30.—(UPI)—Princess Margaret watched with interest and alarm yesterday as rowboat loads of newspapermen and tourists fought a naval skirmish with Italian police launches to watch her bath at a private beach.

The armada of tourists, newsmen and photographers discovered that Princess Margaret wears a modest, one-piece bathing suit. But their curiosity was not satisfied.

They got it in spite of the police launches which churned to shut them from the beach where the Princess came to swim and sunbathe.

The armada failed to gain a beachhead, but was rewarded with a fairly close glimpse of the slim Princess in a light blue wooden bathing suit, wearing a white towel around her neck. Her suit was in marked contrast to the extreme abbreviated "bikini" numbers so popular on Capri beaches.

Margaret watched with concern as the sea battle progressed. Fearing the worst, and her party heaped into a rowboat and boarded a private launch which raced away in search of a more private beach.

Thirty-year-old Indian, Nara Shero, lost his left foot yesterday in an attempt to jump from a moving freight train.

Shero's ankle was crushed under the wheels of a CPR locomotive travelling from Edmonton to Ponoka. Later his head was amputated in Ponoka hospital.

The young Indian, whose wife is in the Cansel hospital at Edmonton, told CPR officials he was stealing a ride back to his reserve at Hobbema. He thought the train would stop at Hobbema, but it kept on.

After reaching Ponoka he jumped from the train, but his sleeve caught.

He fell to the ground, the wheels of one of the cars passing over his left ankle.

Pre-Inaugural Flight Heralds New Service

By Charles MacFarlane
Bulletin City Editor

Edmonton airport today was full of huzzahs as it heralded the advent of Edmonton's linkage with Trans-Canada Air Lines mainline service with Vancouver and the east.

For this morning, shortly after 10 o'clock, TCA North Star jet and Victoria and Vancouver, touched down at the municipal airport on the first leg of a pre-inaugural flight that brings this city to within three hours of Vancouver and a mere day to London, England.

Yes, this is a historic day in the history of the ever-growing air capital of Canada.

And more than mere coincidence is the fact that Captain Art Rankin, veteran TCA pilot, brought in the first ship on the coast-to-coast flight that heralds the dawn of a new era of air transport for this city.

But today there have been changes. Edmonton is assuming its proper place in the world aviation.

Long sought for by civic and Chamber of Commerce officials, the fact that air mail and cargo service east and west finally became a reality, in actuality, to-morrow, May 1.

But today, press, radio, civic and other officials are having a sneak preview of what's to come.

At 5:30 this evening the giant North Star, enroute last night, will stop here briefly to pick up an official party and which is based on the sum of civic reception and entertainment.

BIG PROGRAM
But before boarding the aircraft this little party augmented by some of the party from Victoria and Vancouver will be on time on to Saskatoon for similar ceremonies.

Gov't Will Probe Labor Situation

Investigation Follows Protest
From City Unions, Legion

Dominion Department of Labor has ordered an investigation of labor conditions in the Edmonton oil fields, following protests that American unskilled labor is holding bulk of jobs.

Mr. Carritt said today the survey has been under way for some time. He said that his report to Ottawa and decision as to what course will be taken will be made by top department of labor officials.

ON GUARD
Immigration officials at Ottawa said the situation was being carefully watched and that no persons were being allowed over the oil fields if asked to do so by the Labor Department.

SEND PROTESTS
Both Berg and Williams sent telegrams of protest to Labor Minister Humphrey Mitchell.

Mr. McNamara announced the survey will be made by William Carritt, the department's employment service officer in Edmonton.

Chamber Here Will Study Road Problem

Committees of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce will study recommendations made at Mid-Continental Transportation Conference on transportation and communication held last week at Great Falls, Montana and Lethbridge.

The conference asked that a meeting of Alberta and Montana railroad officials be arranged to discuss railway freight and passenger service.

Rail passenger service is handicapped by poor equipment and poor schedules between Edmonton and mid United States, the conference contended.

POOR SET-UP
Rail freight service, the conference found, was in a sad condition. Interchange of equipment was poor, and schedules inadequate. Absence of through rates and need to eliminate rates based on the sum of two local instead of a lower through rate, also was criticized.

Establishment of the Coast-Sweetgrass freight, passenger and telegraph gateway also was considered of utmost importance to the advancement of Alberta, Montana and Mid-Continental regions for commercial and defence purposes.

The meeting also agreed on necessity for uniform truck regulations along the route of the Alaska highway.

PRIME FACTOR
Also a prime necessity was the establishment of direct telegraphic connection between Alberta and Montana through Coast-Sweetgrass rather than by Vancouver and Minneapolis at present.

Twenty-four hour customs service at Coast-Sweetgrass ports of entry also is necessary for commercial, cultural and tourist reasons.

J. A. Christensen represented the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce at the conference.

Daily Average
56,289 Barrels

CALGARY, April 30.—(CP)—Oil production in Alberta dropped slightly in the week ending April 25, the Conservation Board reports, averaged 56,289 barrels per day compared with 56,908 daily in the previous week. The record of 58,964 barrels in the week ending March 14 still stands. At that time Redwater wells were turning out a thousand or more barrels daily each, and although many more are on production now, the output is only 300 to 400 barrels daily. Conservation and voluntary production are the restricting factors.

Eight more wells were put on production during the week, bringing the Redwater total to 26. Thirteen wells were drilling on April 26. Now there are 238 producers, Turner Valley 276.

Peace Liberal Will Not Run
George Wilson has resigned as Liberal candidate for the Peace River constituency and a convention will be called in Macleod May 11 at 2 p.m. to nominate a new candidate.

In a statement made yesterday, Mr. Wilson said he has found it necessary to give his complete time to his own business.

He is owner and operator of a garage at High Prairie which has been down recently and it is his intention to rebuild as soon as possible.

Mr. Wilson does not feel he can give the time essential to putting on an aggressive campaign but said he will be pleased to give his support to the chosen candidate.

Bergman Stars As Joan of Arc

Technicolor Production
Of French Heroine's Life

With Ingrid Bergman starring in the title-role, Victor Fleming's production, "Joan of Arc," the spectacular Sierra Pictures' offering, in color by Technicolor, comes to the screen as a major dramatic achievement.

The drama displays in vivid pictures the progress of the immortal Maid of Orleans from the time her father's campaign to reach the aid of the despoiled Dauphin, through short-lived triumphs, and into her spectacular end at the stake in the marketplace at Rouen.

WELL-KNOWN STORY

Joan's success in forming a crusading army and the story of her trials, with its thrilling battle scenes, lead to the triumphal crowning of the Dauphin at Rheims and his bitter aftermath—Joan's betrayal to the English and her merciless trial with its foregone ending.

Miss Bergman is ideally cast as the resolute peasant girl who becomes perhaps the greatest of all heroines. The notable supporting cast includes some of the foremost stage and screen personalities, among them Jose Ferrer as the Dauphin, Francis L. Sullivan as the Bishop of Beauvais, J. Car-Nally, Ward Bond, Sherrill Fawcett, Gene Lockhart, John Emery, George C. Scott, John Ireland and Cecil Kellaway.

BASED ON STAGE PLAY

Walter Wanger produced the distinguished offering, which is based on the stage play, "Joan of Arc," by Maxwell Anderson. The screenplay was written by Anderson and Andrew Solt. Victor Fleming directed "Joan of Arc," which is distributed by RKO.

The impressive settings include the village of Domremy, the town of Vaucouleurs, the Dauphin's castle at Chinon, the Touraine forts at Orleans, the great cathedral of Rheims, in addition to the castle and square at Rouen where the heroine is burned at the stake. Striking use of color to accentuate the drama of the various sequences has been employed in making the picture.

Sierra Pictures is composed of Wanger, Fleming and Miss Berg-

CBC Explains Ouster Of Critical Announcer

OTTAWA, April 30.—(CP)—A spokesman for the CBC management said last night that Joel Aldred, CBC announcer in Toronto, was asked for his resignation because "he publicly expressed dissatisfaction with the terms under which he worked."

The statement was made after George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, had charged in the Commons that Aldred, a native of Toronto, had been dismissed today for violating the CBC code of secrecy through an article on him in the Montreal Standard this week. Mr. Drew said that in the article Aldred had told of ways in which the CBC could be improved.

CLAIM PAY REASON

The CBC spokesman added: "The CBC has a system of remuneration for certain staff announcers, such as Mr. Aldred, who receives extra income because they are commissioned on some commercial programs. The plan was established after negotiations with the staff council representing employees of all departments."

The system attacked by Mr. Aldred is one under which his income, according to the article in question, has been close to $12,000 a year. "On leaving the CBC he is, of course, free to continue commercial announcing on a free-lance basis or to join in American network programs as the article intimates he was planning to do."

"If Mr. Aldred felt he had a grievance there are proper channels in the corporation which he could have used but did not. Instead he chose to attack the way I play in public."

COULDN'T BE RETAINED

"In fairness to loyal staff members, the CBC management felt it could not retain Mr. Aldred's services."

The oath taken by CBC employees is simply an oath of allegiance to the crown of office and secrecy, exactly similar to that taken by employees of the government.

Like any organization, public or private, the corporation must expect a basic loyalty from its employees and the airing of any complaints first in the proper places."

In Toronto, Aldred said his dismissal was the continuation of what he called "a far complex" developing within the CBC.

"There's absolutely no justification in it," he said. "It's completely discriminatory."

DEDUCTIONS FROM FEES

The newspaper articles commented on the CBC policy of taking deductions from the commercial fees earned by its employees.

Mr. Aldred said that out of his commercial income, the CBC kept approximately 25 per cent. Staff members who did commercial work had protested through staff councils against the arrangement and Mr. Aldred said he had taken the matter up personally with A. D. Dunton, CBC general manager.

Announcers and producers in Toronto have been fighting this deduction battle for some time now," he said. "But the management keeps turning us down."

Aldred said he was notified Friday of his dismissal.

MP LOOKING FOR THE FLOOR REALLY GETS IT

OTTAWA, April 30.—(CP)—Stanley Knowles (C.P.—Winnipeg North Centre) was looking for the floor in the Commons yesterday and he got it—literally.

Mr. Knowles was on his feet trying to make a point when health minister Martin challenged his right to the floor.

In the midst of the argument, Mr. Knowles suddenly disappeared. A couple of seconds later, his head reappeared above a desk.

Dropping into his seat, he had missed it and landed on the aisle floor.

Man himself, making the latter not only the last but one of the producers. She had desired to play the Joan role ever since she played it in the Maxwell Anderson version, "Joan of Arc," on Broadway.

New TV Transmitter Weights 44 Pounds

LONDON, April 30.—UPI.—British Broadcasting Corporation engineers said today they had developed a new portable television transmitter weighing 44 pounds. Instead of the usual truckload of equipment, they said, the new transmitter can be carried in a couple of suitcases. It has a range of 25 miles.

AND THE MONKEYS CHEERED

Mexican Zoo Animals Put Run on Cowhands

MEXICO CITY, April 30.—(UPI)—The Chapultepec Park Zoo reported yesterday that animals had staged an impromptu and unruly dance.

The animals chased the cowboys, the zoo explained.

Officials of the zoo said some 50 members of the American Mexican animal inoculation team, including six roping-wielding cowboys, visited the zoo yesterday to inoculate its animals against hoof and mouth disease. But they added it was "no contest" because of the performance of a pair of wild-eyed buffaloes.

Cheered on by a band of screaming monkeys, the giant, 3,000-pound bison chased scientists and photographers from their pen, scoring a complete victory for the animal kingdom.

One white-barbed American scientist remarked as he climbed down from a fence:

"Vaccinating cattle out on the range was never like this."

The vaccination crews were afraid to inoculate elk, wapiti, peccaries, llamas, deer and other cloven-hoofed animals susceptible to the disease. But they managed to the down and vaccinate only two Peruvian llamas.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—Midweek medley: highlights and sidelights on the Hollywood news.

Rapid Robert is off again. Bob Hope bounced out of town this week for another of his entertainment tours of the country. This time he and his radio troupe are playing 25 shows in 15 days in 15 states.

Asked why he undertakes such strenuous work, Hope answers: "Work? Are you kidding? This is a vacation."

Of course, there's another reason the comedian likes the tour. The proceeds go into the Hope Enterprises, which not only produce some of his pictures, but include in other commercial ventures.

Which brings up a question often knocked around in Hollywood:

When the movie industry gets the different kinds of pictures are the ones that make the biggest money these days.

So when two or more studios get a similar type of picture on a "disferent" theme, there's a rush to get the films to the theatres first. That's happening now with two pictures showing the perilous side of the tight racket. Next it will be a race for movies on the negro issue. An old and a new picture about baseball heroes currently are battling for interest.

Inside Hollywood

The buyers' market has returned the film industry, like many others, to competitive ways.

The first official statement of the situation in the film world organization came at a foreign ministers' meeting in 1945 at Moscow.

Physicists Trecubled In Telling Right Time

WASHINGTON, April 30.—(UPI)—Half a dozen physicists spent 140 minutes today talking about how hard it was to tell time.

They talked in terms of split seconds of a second and of billions of years.

They talked about atomic, planetary, and radioactive "clocks"—measuring the duration of their remarks before the American physics society by naval observatory time is corrected on the wall clock each hour by Western Union.

DEPENDS ON STANDARD

They agreed that what time it is depends on what standard you use. They also agreed that the rotating earth, because it is gradually slowing down, is not the best of all possible timepieces.

A better one is the vibration of atoms, which the National Bureau of Standards—by means of microwave machinery—has put to work checking the passage of time.

The bureau's achievement was reported last January. It is so accurate, according to Dr. Harold Lyons of the bureau's time-measuring department, that it would gain or lose no more than three seconds a year.

But that performance is no better than the earth's, which has served since the birth of the concept of time. So, Dr. Lyons reported today, the bureau is working on

Ways to Help Immigrants To Be Probed

OTTAWA, April 30.—(CP)—New ways of helping immigrants find ultimate happiness in Canada will be explored at a meeting of the Canadian Citizenship Council here next Thursday.

The conference will fall into three phases. The council will review recommendations it made at its first national conference on the citizenship problems of new immigrants. It will formulate additional plans to help new Canadians become adjusted to the way of life in this country, and will discuss ways of helping to remove understanding between old and new Canadians.

General H. D. G. Crean, chairman of the council, today gave some indication of the main topics.

PATNETIC STORIES

Particular stress will be laid on the development of more cordial relations between the immigrants and people either born here or who have been in Canada for a number of years.

It is heartening, the general said, to hear the realistic stories of loneliness, and the bewilderment of the newcomers because they have no one to initiate them to the Canadian way of living, and no one actually Canadian to whom they can take their problems.

Killam to Build Arena As Memorial Centre

KILLAM, April 30.—Killam Board of Trade, backed by citizens of the town and district is making good progress toward the building of a Memorial Centre. Actual construction is hoped for this year.

The Memorial Centre will take the form of an arena as it is believed that would offer a place of recreational activities and remain a useful memorial to those men and women of the town and district who lost their lives in the two world wars.

Killam Legion is helping in its own way by raising as much money as possible. Last month the members pledged to raise $1,000 during the year. At their last meeting they were able to turn over $300 of this money.

In their first project, the carnival, the net receipts were approximately $225.

The annual V.E. dance will be held on May 9. This is the second function from which all proceeds will go to the Memorial Fund. This dance is a joyous occasion celebrating the allied victory in Europe.

Women's Groups Hold Meetings

TOFFIELD, April 30.—Toffield-Soldier Credit Women's Auxiliary held its monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Nornlund.

Hastings Lake group met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arndt and the Muskoka FUA held the April meeting at the home of Mrs. E. Peterson.

It was decided to have a year book published for district No. 8 and the next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. R. Swaley.

On The Farm Is Opening Today

By Pat McVean

Next most vexing problem to keeping the chickens out of it once you have it planted is the question of deciding what to put in the garden in the first place.

By now the days of dawning over the seed catalogue are past and were down to the hard fact of what's best to plant, particularly in view of the drier than usual season which may be anticipated.

It's a three-way job, because the farm gardener has to plan for lettuce, onions and radishes for early summer eating, vegetables for fall picking and eating, and plenty of staples like turnips, carrots and parsnips for winter storage.

Potatoes can go in right now with Netted Gem, Warbus and Contey's Early Favorite a good bet for heavy production.

Cabbage and cauliflower can be started now in hot beds and transplanted later. Golden Acre cabbage, an early variety, should mature about the end of July, and the Danish Ballhead should be ready by early September. Early Shanghai cauliflower is a variety particularly recommended for this area.

Yellow Dutch sets will out-distance most other varieties of onion in getting ahead in ground and into green salads, along with Grand Rapids leaf lettuce and New York or Wonderful head lettuce.

Two crops of Scarlet Globe radishes, planted two weeks apart, will assure a season's supply. Plant Yellow Globe Danvers if you want the big cooking onion, and a few Barletta for pickling.

Edmonton seed wholesalers say they sell a ton of cucumber seed each year, much of it Early Rascal which ends up as cucumber pickle, and the rest Davis Perfect or Straight Eight for summer-time cucumbers and vinegar dishes.

A patch of herbs—sage, sweet thyme and lots of dill—becomes practically a grocery store for the farm housewife, especially at canning time.

You can have fresh peas all summer long by planting a few rows of Homestead or Lovell's Progress, Stratagist and Tall Telephone. They'll mature about two weeks apart.

Recommended varieties of other vegetables for Central and Northern Alberta planting are: Sweet corn, parsnips, Laurentian sweet turnip, White Bush vegetable marrow, Lucullus Swiss chard, Netted Gem or Chantrelle carrots, and Early Wonder and Detroit Dark Red beets.

For good bean production Broad Windsor, Golden or Black was Green Stringless and Scarlet Runner pole beans are recommended.

Native squash seeds will mature about the end of July, two weeks earlier than City Early Market or Golden Sweet varieties, but all are suited to growing conditions here.

A flower garden is pretty much a luxury for the farm gardener who is always busy, but these annuals can be seeded, left to their own devices and will reward you handsomely with a riot of color:

Pot marigold, candytuft, calliopsis, annual chrysanthemum, hollyhock, buttercup, cosmos, red drum larkspur, monarda, nasturtium, nemophila in bluish variety, African daisy, strawflower, baby's breath, California and most types of poppies.

Linum floricum in most farm gardens, and sweet peas, give a trellis to climb, bloom big and beautiful.

THE "MAPLERIDGE" is a two-story Colonial home compact and convenient. It is adaptable to a lot as narrow as 40 feet allowing for a nine-foot side drive. Simplicity of partition arrangement provides economy and permits a good arrangement of furniture. Basically, sizes have been kept small. Light Furniture Brings Many Timely Tips Here

In recent years, with the appearance of light wood finishes in the furniture market, there has been considerable interest in refinishing of old furniture with such finishes. For those who wish to bleach or 'pickle' furniture, here are a few tips.

"Picking" means stripping a piece of furniture, adding a light finish.

It can be done by burning and into the wood or rubbing in paint and in apt to get the wood paint easier to apply, gives a more controlled finish.

1. Place your piece of furniture where it can stay at least four days and where there is good ventilation.

2. Wear rubber gloves, throughout and a pair of glasses.

3. If the upholstery is in good condition, remove it.

4. Test the recipe first on the back of a cushion or chest.

5. Don't start unless you are willing to spend time rubbing with sandpaper, steel wool and wax for a professional finish.

6. Take all.

1. Remove all paint and varnish with paint remover, applying liquid with a brush and allowing it to stand until paint softens. Then scrape the paint off with a putty knife. Clean the wood immediately with alcohol or benzene. Let it dry for a day.

2. Sandpaper with No. 80 sandpaper.

3. Some woods that have been stained grow darker when bleach is applied. Test bleach on an important surface. Commercial bleaches are available at any paint store. Follow directions on bottle. Again wash the wood with alcohol or benzene and let it dry thoroughly.

4. For the pickled finish, use a light mixture of oil paint in a color of white, beige or grey. Apply with a brush or cloth and rub off immediately, until you have the amount of color you like. An un-

Pringle Expands Poultry Service

Complete Organization With Recently-Added Units

Western Canada now has a complete poultry service. And the headquarters of this comprehensive business set-up which provides farmers with best quality fowls from the egg-stage to the laying hen, is in Edmonton.

Pringle Electric Hatcheries, the main branch of which is at 10300 101 street, is a rapidly-expanding, smooth-running organization aimed at the farmer, the type of poultry service needed to promote egg production.

With the purchase recently of the Sekora Chickeries on the south side of the city, and the establishment of a pullet farm at 9610 135 avenue, M. E. Pringle known throughout British Columbia, Alberta and Saskatchewan as "Jerry the Flying Hatchery-man" has finalized immediate plans for building up the poultry business.

A qualified pilot, Jerry Pringle supervises his Calgary and Chualar, B.C. plants as well as keeping an eye on production in Edmonton.

He has now made over 40 flights across the Rockies. Frequently transporting baby chicks to centres in Saskatchewan and other provinces.

LOOKS TO CLINIC But he is not content with the production of over one million chicks per season. He wants in the future to establish a poultry clinic with facilities to diagnose and treat various diseases and ailments peculiar to fowls.

The new Pringle plant on the South Side, which was originally constructed for brooding purposes only, will soon operate as a complete hatchery unit. Installation of 15,000 total capacity incubators, is slated for the future.

Demand for chicks of all ages, pullets and laying hens, come from all parts of the three western provinces. Proper selection of chicks for shipment is the result of 18 years of chick-bearing and hatchery operating by members of the Pringle family and staff.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Pringle, father and mother of the Flying Hatchery-man, started their first hatchery in Calgary, 1931, and are still in charge of that plant.

Latest type turkey hatchery was installed at the 101 street plant some time ago.

Here, turkey poulters produced total about 6,000 weekly. More than 120,000 chicks are hatched weekly in the Pringle hatcheries. And the turnover of started chicks reaches an average of 150,000 per year.

10 Years Back Rent Is Asked From Squatter

CALGARY, April 29.—(CP)—Olaf Olsen of Burnaby, B.C., has filed a counter claim for 10 years and eight months' back rent against Boyd Douglas Johnson, Calgary, in a supreme court action to which Johnson claimed the property by "squatter's rights."

Johnson started the action last March 3, when he claimed ownership of a Calgary house and lot, by virtue of having resided in it rent free since August, 1938, in undisturbed possession. He named Olaf Olsen, registered owner, and Emma Josephine Olsen, registered holder of a small mortgage against the property, as the defendants to the action and said he did not know where they were.

In the first nine months of 1948 The Netherlands lost 113,000 man-days through strikes.

Could Mark End For Fiery Lip

NEW YORK, April 29.—This out could mark the end of the line for Leo Danaher.

Accused for the second time in his managerial career of punching a fan, the baldish, pug-nosed little pilot of the Giants will have his head in the stocks when he again walks into commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler's office in Cincinnati next Tuesday.

It has been a matter of common belief in baseball circles that Danaher, who played last season as pitcher and second baseman for the Giants, was a trouble maker and a trouble maker.

The pitcher who punched the fan, Danaher, is shown in a game of football in the gym.

The Giants say they are confident that Danaher will support him to the limit against any unjust accusation. They were, however, yesterday gathering evidence in his behalf. It is still not clear for the little guy who can seem to keep out of trouble.

NEW YORK, April 30.—(HUP)—Pressure-proofed Ken Heintzelman, a veteran oil guy who doesn't get that big apple in his throat when the going gets tough, was holding the Philadelphia Phillies together today as a time when some of them were wondering what they would have done if they had been in his shoes.

Lefty Ken, a seasoned gladiator from Peoria, Mo., who has won three of Philadelphia's four victories thus far, never figured to be the big man of the staff when manager Eddie Sawyer assembled it down south last spring.

Sawyer was counting on such straggled youngsters as Chris Simmons, Hubert Roberts, and

Mercurys May Represent Canada at Puck Tourney

Possibility that Waterloo Mercurys, western Canada's intermediate hockey kings, may represent Canada next winter at any world amateur tournament to be staged in Europe was made known last night at a banquet tendered the squad by sponsor Jim Christiansen.

Art Potter, vice-president of the Alberta Amateur Hockey association, made known that the provincial body will recommend to the Canadian Amateur Hockey association, scheduled to meet in New York next month, that coach Jimmy Graham's intermediate kings carry the Canadian banner to the world tournament, if one is staged.

Southern Wolves represented Canada in Stockholm in February and failed to head off the Swedish wallops in the race for the crown. Incidentally Don Stanley, lanky goalie who was rushed to the aid of the Wolves along about the time the touring got underway, is a valued member of the Mercury aggregation.

More than 400 guests attended last night's enjoyable function held with the purpose of not only honoring the Mercury puckmen but their basketball cohorts, the eleven fourteen and central Alberta champions. Maple leaf junior hockey club also a Waterloo affiliate and the members of the "King Pins" are team in the country's five level circuit.

Sponsor Christiansen, in complimenting Mercurys on their achievements of the 1947-48 season, spoke of them as "a great hockey club," one that was credit to the city and province.

Likewise he expressed his personal satisfaction over the exploits of coach Bill Trede's basketball pucks.

SHOWERED WITH GIFTS
Mr. Christiansen was the recipient of several gifts from his athletes, including a miniature trophy from the Waterloo club and a ball-pup from Graham and his Mercurys.

Among the guests were Vice coach Frank Currie and Mrs. Currie.

Turf Purse Total $484,000 In West

Western Canada horse racing fans appear to be for a good summer. From the time the western circuit opens early in May until the end of the season, the purse money in the West will total $484,000 in purses, will be the highest in the Dominion.

Winning, Calgary, Regina and Saskatoon.

From the meeting during the summer will have one or more top-notch stables and racing officials expect keen competition as pre-season stall reservations are the highest in the West.

Scores of stables now have their horses in training at various points throughout western Canada and large shipments are expected from the Pacific Coast and the United States before the season gets underway.

Top race locally will be the "Speed to Spirit" handicap worth $1,000. Frank's Mileage captured the sprint in 1946. This race will be the highest in the West.

Why the Caps are a capital investment, said a Regina postal worker.

Just for the record, Ottawa quickly rounded up the extra $50.

ASSURANCE GIVEN

"On April 20 I received a wire from Nantais stating that Assumption had been selected in the eastern final. . . But no mention was made about the Dominion.

I immediately telephoned Nantais and received his assurance that they were definitely carrying on if they won against Montreal, as they had received permission from the college.

"All in all, basketball has received very adverse publicity from this stage and I intend making a full investigation."

'Big Chief' and Tribesmen Stage Large Pow-Wow

"THE CHIEF" staged a feast and all the braves and squaws on the reservation had one big time. Jim Christiansen, known to his employees and others as "The Chief," played host at an enjoyable function last night. Here the top man of Waterloo Mercurys hockey team, western Canada's leading, gets the going-up treatment. From left, Bill McKay, trainer Bert Tond, Don Gauf, manager Joe Hanley, Bill Dawe, Lee Dawe (one 'squaw' to crash the act), Jack Davies, Pete Wright, 'The Chief', Bob David, coach Jim Graham, Harry Allen and Don Stanley. Incidentally 'Chief' Christiansen is rumored to have put up $50,000 in 'treasury money' among his pucketers, as of a recent date.

LIKE CLEVELAND LIKE ESKIMOS . . .

Like Cleveland Indians, like Edmonton Eskimos. Both champions, both were scheduled to open their 1948 baseball season on the road.

Cleveland opened in St. Louis while Eskimos hit the road to Calgary to meet the Buffaloes of Cowntown May 13 in one half of the Big Four league scheduled mid-lifter. Edmonton Cubs will be at home to Purities of Calgary in the other half.

Full schedule is on page 12.

Meanwhile, both local teams continued their training grid last night. Al Superstein, who played some centerfield for Cubs last year, is trying again. And Doug Stewart, who played for Eskimos two years ago, has been working out with the junior bruisers and shown plenty of power at the bat. Both teams practice today and Sunday, with Eskis showing at 1:30 p.m. Sunday and Cubs at 3 p.m.

Brandon Fans Say: 'Wheaties Will Win'

WINNIPEG, April 30—(CP)—Montreal Royals' fans may be heartened by the fact their team holds a 1-1 lead in the best-of-seven Montreal Cup final, but if you take it from supporters of the trailing Brandon Wheat Kings the lead doesn't mean a thing.

Stickies of the western Canadian champions are agreed to a tie, that the series will be a five-game series, with the two clubs, with Wheat Kings having returned to motion yesterday while Royals stayed at Winnipeg pending an afternoon session at the Amphitheatre rink.

Brandon supporters are confident the two teams will be defeated after Saturday night's encounter, as the westerners moving ahead in subsequent games.

Royals, on the other hand, feel that they got a bad game out of their system Thursday and that if they could defeat Brandon Friday while showing relatively mediocre form the series should be in their favor in future games.

THREE-FOLD ARGUMENT
Brandon fans are marshalling a three-fold argument in their favor. First, they claim that the Royals lost two games in a row this season, majority of games in the series will be played on Western home ice and the western tilts aren't showing top form this year.

Royals counter that it's all not so late for Wheaties to lose two in a row this season.

Royals took things easy yesterday in Winnipeg, holding off an afternoon session at the rink until late in the afternoon. Saturday they'll travel to Brandon for the series' second game, returning to Winnipeg between matches.

Ask Cage Coach To Explain Fiasco

MONTREAL, April 30—(CP)—Windsor Assumption College's basketball coach will be called on to explain the "fiasco" that resulted in cancellation of the senior division final, vice-president Cliff Melville of the Canadian Amateur Basketball association said yesterday.

Melville said last night as late as April 29 he was told by coach Stan (Red) Nantais that Assumption would carry through to the final if successful in winning the eastern title.

"BRIGHT" ON GAME
What Melville termed a "bright on basketball" came Thursday when president B. Howells, in Vancouver, called off the final because the Assumption students were having college examinations and could not make the trip west.

Montreal's VMAA Blue lost to Assumption in two straight games, the second on Wednesday night. On reports the Blues would be selected as eastern representatives against Vancouver Cloverleafs, the Montreal team remained in Montreal.

Two came word from Howells Thursday that the Blues would not be worthy opponents. Melville said he was asked by Assumption in a letter of Feb. 22 that eastern and division final would be changed because of examinations.

He told Assumption this could not be done. On April 16, he said, Nantais wrote him and Howells requesting the final start May 1. Howells ordered the division final to start May 2, and I gave Assumption until noon April 21 either to declare their intention definitely of going all the way or defaulting."

Had there been a default, said Melville, he would have ordered Central YMCA of Toronto to play off the Montreal team for the right to enter the final.

On the other hand, feel that they got a bad game out of their system Thursday and that if they could defeat Brandon Friday while showing relatively mediocre form the series should be in their favor in future games.

SERVING CANADA FOR 279 YEARS

AWAY TO MERRY OLD ENGLAND FOR THREE MONTHS

SUNNY ALBERTA'S charms has faded for Muriel Macdonald, who left this weekend to spend three months in the green hills of England. She will have a leisurely ocean voyage on the Empress of Canada, sailing from Montreal in 10 days. Muriel has been director of the Royal Alexandra hospital for the past two years.

EDMONTON GIRL BACK IN HOME TOWN FOR VISIT

BUDDING SPRINGTIME is visiting-home-time for Ray Bartleman of Port Angeles, Wash., and young niece Anne Bartleman of Vancouver, B.C. The Bartleman girls arrived this week for the graduation of nurse Agnes Bartleman from the Royal Alexandra hospital. While in town they are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Bartleman, Ray's parents, at their west-end home.

WOMEN of TODAY

Edmonton Awakes to New Beauty

Sweet, fresh greening of the Saskatchewan River valley gives Edmonton a happy glow of merry springtime.

Bubbling trills of the newly-arrived robins, the heavenly blue of a bluebird on the wing, the merry melody of the meadow-lark give us our hope, our vision for a balmy summer season.

Rippling waters of the awakened river give us our thought, word and deed.

We look to a delightful summertime.

TRAVEL BUG BITES IN SPRINGTIME

NEW PASTIME in summer is Eastern travel. Mrs. W. might to the east city of Montreal. Maroon left last week-end for Montreal where she plans to make her own home. Daughter, Mrs. and Mrs. Albert E. Smith, Maroon, are both on the dietetic staff of the University Hospital for the past two years.

Summer Fun Plans Going Full Swing

With weary winter tossed into the waste basket with the old calendar leaves, Edmonton women are busy whipping summer activities into shape.

Golf enthusiasts have solid starting June 29 and lasting plans for tournament fun till June 24. Mrs. T. G. Morris announced this with all the confidence of her committee backing her and they look to a season of fun and success.

Tennis clubs across the city have held opening meetings and are ready for action with club favorites such as Helen Lilley, Donald Miller, Mrs. Ian Macdonald, Bill Astle, Les and Irma MacManus swinging into the fun.

Tea-time entertaining has more purpose now as June brides-to-be are showered with attention from friends and family. Parties galore are being held for Pat Walters, Jane Swann, Margaret Weisman, Helen Turner and scores of others.

Shops are busy supplying wedding gifts. For the summer, new frocks for the spring parties and extra goodies for added entertainment.

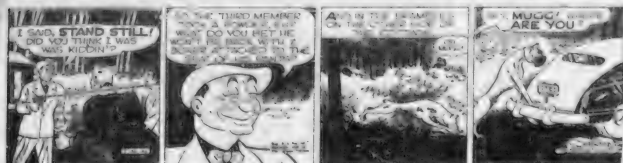

Yes! It looks like a busy season.

TEA-ZAR PLANS MEAN CONFABS FOR CAVU MEMBERS

HIVE OF BEES couldn't be busier than members of the Ceiling and Visibility Unlimited Club who are planning a Tea-Zar to be held at All Saints' Parish Hall May 20. General convener Mrs. Norman McPherson, left; Mrs. Archibald McMullen, home-cooking convener; Mrs. Gordon Walker, tea-convener; Mrs. John Collins, dress convener; and Mrs. Hugh R. Knott, children's sports convener, discuss plans. Proceeds will go to the aid of the Friendship Club.

ing students during the past three-year course and each nurse will be congratulated by Sister Florence Keegan, superintendent of nurses at the hospital. Less formal celebration will take place at the Macdonald hotel Wednesday when the hospital Alumni Association holds the graduation ball for the class of '49.

This would be made up, to a certain extent, by the larger total allowances demanded by the presence of 17 additional members in the new Parliament, as provided for by redistribution.

With the 17, the annual expense allowance would bound to $204,000.

On the two meeting when Parliament went out of existence, each member would lose one-eighth—$25,500—of the allowance, just at the time when his expense were highest.

Business out of pocket expenses, there was the case of members who would have to take their seats in the new Parliament.

Members who did not succeed in getting re-elected would not choose to run again, were entitled only to allowances covering the four months past when they were members.

At $200,000, the allowance would be only $660.

For new members who took seats in the House after the general election, expenses would be $200,000, the remaining $200,000 of the year. They would be $100,000.

It would be a harder working day.

members of the House of Commons than George Drew. If Tuesday was any example, they be hard to find.

The Opposition Leader will be in Ottawa by plane from the Provincial convention in Toronto. He will be there early afternoon, hurried right in for the Commons, come out of it at a lengthy night conference, then returned the House after the press conference, without having time to sleep.

At the close of Mr. Drew's last time duck out of the House for a quick meal of ham and eggs in his office.

Reconstruction Minister William L. Bennett, with his administrative tasks showing the other day, will be in Ottawa, too. Mr. Bennett visited total administrative costs of Wartime Housing at the time $124,000.

Later members, of his staff and who will be away out of the House, actually included, property maintenance costs.

The Ottawa Interpretation of un-Parliamentary language apparently was much broader.	"I would have said that," said Mr. Hentley, "had it been allowed. I know of course that it is not allowed."

The same night Conservative member Hoxneix Baxter was forced to withdraw from the British House of Commons after using the word "caddish" to T. J. Bentley, C.P. member for Swift Current, used this phrase in Canada's Parliament.

Red Cross Teens Lay Spring Plans

Rally to Begin May 14
Includes Rural Broadcast

Wind-up meeting of the Inter-High Junior Red Cross Council was held in the Blood Donor Clinic Lounge, Wednesday.

Edmon-Teens Make Plans

By NANCY HUNTER

As spring is now in full swing, the Edmon-Teens dance tonight is to be called "Willowood," and will take place in the Garneau.

Records from the Edmon-Teens' new library of discs will provide the music.

The gym will be appropriately decorated with pussy willows.

NOMINATIONS OPEN

Nominations will be open for one more week for the new Council of Edmon-Teens. As yet, nominations are as follows: for president, Len Healey; for secretary, Margaret Macdonald; for treasurer, Ron Hancock, Mike de Lange; music committee, Don Ewart; and publicity, Eric Harvey.

It was announced Wednesday night that since the last old time dance held at Westgate, Farm 40, was such a success another would be held on May 7 at Garneau gym.

OLD TIME DANCE

to be called "Old Time" will be held this weekend at the Edmon-Teens' Variety Show.

Ticket sales were very good, and it was announced by Calgary officials and the show is certain to be as great a success as it was in Edmonton.

McCauley Teens Elect President

Lucien Tremblay was elected president of McCauley Teens in elections held recently at the community hall.

Other officers elected were vice-president, Patricia Macdonald; secretary, Ellen Malnyk; treasurer, Pat Cough; social convener, Bob Cough; sports, Ken Moore; and J. de France.

The first dance held April 20 at the hall was reported a big success.

Next dance is planned for Friday in the McCauley Community Hall, and will feature old-time and square dancing.

Scena girls have organized four house league softball teams.

Managers are Joan Harrison, Frances Hodgson, Joan Steel and Diane Walcott.

All games are to be played at noon, with the first game scheduled for Monday, May 2.

Scena welcomed Dr. W. H. Johns, University of Alberta, last Tuesday when he gave a talk on the different university vocations which could be taken up after finishing high school.

Separate

Rep High was busy early last week planning their dance, "Spring Magic," held Wednesday evening in the Maple Temple.

Next major activity is the Grad banquet and dance, "Moonlight Serenade," to be held May 17 in the Trocadero ballroom. The school pins and rings have arrived and orders are being taken for the Grad pins.

University

UHS, like all other schools, is back at the daily grind but there is a bright note in the offing. The Grad banquet and dance will be held May 19 at the Macdonald hotel.

At the supper meeting each school will give a report of their activities and the president will outline plans for community service projects that might be undertaken next year.

Anyone interested in representing their school on the Junior Red Cross Council is invited to phone 2474 for further information.

Golfers Club Now Under Way

Dave Kula was elected president of the Scena golf club at a meeting held Wednesday.

Instructions will be given at the club house on Sunday at the Municipal Golf Course.

Regular meetings are planned every Sunday at noon, with Dave Anderson's team in top position at present.

Eastwood

The first games of the Eastwood baseball league teams have been played.

Last plans for the Eastwood yearbook have been taken and the rest of the book is being organized.

Advance orders are now being taken. A public speaking contest will be held at Eastwood May 5.

A candid camera day and contest are planned for the near future at Eastwood.

Victoria

Vic students organized their dance this Thursday.

The Vic Grad banquet and dance will be held May 22. More details are expected soon.

Rookie-of-the-Year award was presented to Jerry Babiuk, as the outstanding amateur basketball player of 1948.

Presentation was made by Johnny Clarke of Vix-Teens, in a ceremony at the Recreation Hall last week.

Jerry, who played with the Globetrotters, is a well-known figure in sport circles.

Last year, he took the Athlete Award for sports in general at Vix. He holds a medal for the Dominion Cadet Shoot Rifle Shield, 1948, and played with the Sea Cadet Basketball team of 1947.

He is in his final year at Victoria High and hopes to enter Varsity as a medical student.

Stampede Ball Is Wild West

Y Ranch Stampede, a fantasy of Indian ballet, rope dances, mixed pyramids, Indian club swinging and other dynamic events set in a western atmosphere, was held Friday evening in the West Hall of the High School Auditorium.

Over three hundred boys and girls took part in the evening's activities, dramatizing a story of life on the Y Ranch.

The narrative of Tumbling Tumbleweeds, Tex, cowboy songs and square dancing, gave two hours of fun for everyone.

Sponsored by the Edmon-Teens, the Y Ranch Stampede presented three full acts of wild and woolly entertainment, displaying talents of boys and girls from West Edmonton.

Dyes First Discovered In Times of Cave Man

Dear Tawasi:

Every time you spill the juice of blackberries or blueberries on your clothes, remember that this is probably how dyes were discovered in the first place.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

Birthday wishes to Lisa Spooner.
2150 72 street,
Who was nine years old on April 27. She is in Grade 3 at Cromdale and likes arithmetic and spelling best. Lisa's dog, Rags, always sees her safely to school every day and is learning how to do tricks. Her dobbies are roller skating and ice-dancing.

Special wishes go to North Johnson, who lives up in Yellowknife, and who was nine years old on April 25. He was called North because he was one of the first boys to be born in Yellowknife in 1946. He has a pet, but makes up for his lack of a pet by building houses. Playing the piano is his favorite hobby.

Happy birthday for Marilyn Darch, 11535 33 street, who was five years old on April 28. She wears the blue emile because she likes having her hair curled the way it is in this picture. Marilyn and her little sister spend most of their time playing house with a pet kitten, Puff.

TAILORS SNUB PRINCE'S WHIM

LONDON, April 30.—(AP)—Saville Row, mecca of men's fashions, turned up its nose yesterday at one of Prince Philip's style whims. The British Flower Industry Association had said the Prince has made gentlemen more flower conscious by wearing a flower in his lapel. But, complained the association, tailors are making dinner jackets without buttonholes in the lapels.

BRIDGE

Crafty Play Wins Tough Contract

By William E. McKeeney
When to draw trumps immediately, and when not to, is a problem that comes up quite often in bridge. Today's hand looks like a simple one to play, yet declarer can't easily go wrong and he is defeated if he draws the trumps first.

Suppose, for example, that South wins the opening lead of the queen of diamonds, then decides to pick up the outstanding trumps and lead a heart towards dummy. He will not make his contract because he will lose a heart, two clubs and a diamond. After winning the queen of diamonds with the ace, South should immediately lead a small heart. If West plays low, the king should be played from dummy. When the king holds the trick, the eight of spades is led to declarer's ace, and now the king and queen of spades are cashed, picking up the outstanding trumps.

Another heart is led at this point, which West will win with the ace, but no matter what he does now, he cannot prevent declarer from making the contract. If he leads the jack of diamonds, dummy's king will win the trick and declarer can discard a losing diamond from his own hand on dummy's queen of hearts. A small club is then led from dummy, East plays the queen, South covers with the king and West's ace wins. South must then enter another club, but he makes the contract, losing only two clubs and one heart.

Club Mail

Out first letter this week is from Barbara Dobson, of Lloydminster, who was in to visit us here at the Bulletin over the Easter holidays. She would like to say hello to Joyce Curtis and Joy Leonard, and all the other friends who were so kind to her on her vacation. To be a friend and helper, Barbara makes her bed every morning and also does some baby sitting whenever she is needed.

Ann Goodrich, 2606 Jasper Avenue, wrote a last letter in this, telling us how much she likes being a member of the Tawasi Club. Ann thinks she is a lucky girl to have a birthday on July 1, the same as Dominion Day. We'll have her picture in the Birthday column on that day. She helps her mother around the house and is a very obedient little girl.

Eight-year-old Patry Maack, of Mundare, wrote us about her pet dog who was run over by a car and killed. We are very sorry. Patry is a Brownie and at present is learning how to mend stockings and help mother around the house.

Marlene Wildgrube, of Bruderheim, tells us how her father has bird houses and animals for the lawn, and beautiful arrays for the house. She would like to have lots of pen pals about ten years old, especially those interested in stamp collecting.
